SOURCE:	Code of Alabama Section 16-60-111.4
CROSS REFERENCE:	Code of Alabama Section 16-60-111.9; Policy 203.01

Policy:

Upon a Presidential vacancy, or in the event a President is placed on administrative leave by the Chancellor, the Chancellor shall assume temporary responsibility for the institution. This responsibility may include the appointment of an interim President or an acting President. If the Chancellor deems it necessary, he/she may assume responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the institution.

Procedure:

1. The Chancellor, subject to the rules and procedures of the Board, may appoint an interim President to fill the vacant position for such terms as the Chancellor determines to be in the best interest of the college.
2. In a circumstance of a Presidential absence, the Chancellor may appoint an acting President for an appropriate period of time.
